F: Below 59.5%

Overall Grade Formula

Quizzes	(20%)
Discussions	(20%)
Short Answer Assignments	(30%)
Letter to the Editor	(10%)
Exams	(20%)

Assignments

Quizzes (20%)

Most weeks that cover a textbook chapter will include a quiz. Generally, a quiz will have at least 10 questions (e.g., multiple choice, true/false, or free response) based on the assigned reading and videos for that particular week. While I do accept late quizzes, there is a late penalty. Moreover, your two lowest quiz grades will be dropped.

Discussions (20%)

There are five discussion assignments in this course. Some discussion threads will be based on a current event in Texas politics, while other discussions will examine the structure of Texas government. The purpose of the discussions is for students to demonstrate their knowledge of course material and engage with other students on important topics in Texas politics.

For each discussion, you will be required to make an initial post in which you answer the question(s) posed in the prompt. After you make your initial post, you must read the posts from your fellow classmates and make two additional posts in response to posts from other students. I will accept late discussion assignments, but there will be a 10-point deduction for every day that it is late.

Finally, all students are required to maintain professional language in online discussions. If you offer criticism, do it in a polite and constructive manner. For example, avoid name-calling, curse words, and slurs. Any text that a reasonable person would find offensive will likely result in a loss of credit for the assignment. If you need further clarification, please contact the instructor.

Short Answer Assignments (30%)

There are four short answer assignments in this course. Each assignment will ask you to answer a series of questions covering important material from the textbook and lectures. It is important that you accurately answer all parts of the questions and cite the textbook (or another reputable source) to support your answers. All short answer assignments will be submitted through Blackboard. Late short answer assignments will be accepted, but there is a late penalty.

Letter to the Editor (10%)

This assignment requires you to critically read and assess a newspaper article or editorial. Then, you will write a letter to the editor in which you develop a persuasive argument and a call to action. More information on this assignment will be provided to you later in the semester.

Exams (20%)

There are two exams (midterm and final) in this course. Both exams will have multiple-choice and possibly some true/false or free response questions.

Course Withdrawals

The last day to withdraw/drop with a grade of “W” is November 30. It is the student’s responsibility to withdraw from this course. Otherwise, students will be assigned their earned letter grade at the end of the course. Course averages will be updated twice each week, and guidance will be provided throughout the term to help students decide whether they need to drop the class or not. For more information regarding drops/withdrawals, please visit <https://www.southplainscollege.edu/admission-aid/apply/schedulechanges.php>.

Academic Integrity

Cheating, plagiarism, or any other act of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. At the bare minimum, a student who cheats or plagiarizes will receive a zero for the assignment. In addition, I reserve the right to seek additional penalties, such as a zero for the entire course and filing an Academic Dishonesty Report.

There are now websites that will actually generate semi-unique material that somewhat resembles original material. Since the technology is available to create this content, technology is also available to detect this content. Make no mistake, this is plagiarism. I am not asking AI to write a paper, I am asking you, the student, to create this content. If you submit work that is not your own, original material, it will be considered plagiarism and receive a grade of zero. The incident will also be detailed to the Dean of Students for disciplinary actions.

Student Grievance Procedure

A student grievance is a College related issue or condition that a student believes to be unfair, inequitable, discriminatory, or a hindrance to the educational process. A grievance also includes discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. You can find more information about the student grievance procedure here:
